

Childhood Hunger in America

In a recent poll*, 65% of America's teachers reported that they regularly see kids who come to school hungry because they aren't getting enough to eat at home. And two-thirds of K-8 teachers surveyed (65%) say that most or a lot of their students rely on school meals as their primary source of nutrition.

"So many of my students return after the summer, sickly and thin. They have not retained any of their skills from the previous year because their main focus is food."

THE NO KID HUNGRY PLEDGE

I believe that no child in America should go hungry. By pledging today, I add my voice to the national movement of people committed to ending childhood hunger in America.

I pledge to do more than I ever thought I could to help children gain access to the healthy food they need to grow and thrive.

I will help make the invisible hunger visible for my neighbors, my family and our local, state and national leaders.

By uniting my voice with thousands of others, I believe that we can make No Kid Hungry a reality.

We CAN End Childhood Hunger

Hunger is something that no child should ever worry about. A kid should be able to just be a kid.

Share Our Strength's No Kid Hungry Campaign is knocking down the barriers that keep kids and families from accessing healthy food:

- Connecting kids to existing programs like school breakfasts and summer meals.
- Expanding the number of summer meals sites across the country.
- Granting funds to food assistance programs in communities large and small.
- And teaching families how to budget, shop for and prepare healthy meals.

We have big goals. We're not just feeding hungry kids today...we're working to end childhood hunger once and for all by surrounding kids with healthy food where they live, learn and play.

We're building Team No Kid Hungry with people from all walks of life — chefs, school principals, business leaders, politicians, celebrities...and YOU! Because it's going to take a lot of us to end childhood hunger.

Support our No Kid Hungry campaign at nokidhungry.org/support.

One out of every five children in America faces hunger.

Kids who wake up hungry, struggle through their days hungry and go to bed at night trying to ignore the gnawing in their bellies.

But it doesn't have to be this way. Hunger is a problem with a solution. And Share Our Strength's No Kid Hungry Campaign is leading the way.
